

The SEED Public Charter School of Washington, D.C. is the nation's first college-preparatory, public boarding school. Our mission is to provide an outstanding, intensive educational program that prepares children, both academically and socially, for success in college and beyond.

Dear Prospective Family,

Greetings from The SEED Public Charter School of Washington, D.C.!

The SEED Public Charter School of Washington, D.C. (SEED) has been in existence for over 25 years and currently serves scholars in grades nine through twelve. SEED scholars are immersed in a college success environment, living and learning on campus from Sunday evening through Friday afternoon. The school offers small class sizes, rigorous academics, Advanced Placement courses, Dual Enrollment at colleges & universities, student-led clubs, athletic and arts programs, as well as college counseling services. A breakdown of our model is at the right.

There are many families who not only desire the educational program and guidance SEED provides, but also need The SEED Public Charter School environment to partner with them to ensure their children are prepared successfully to complete college and navigate life.

If you believe your child would benefit from our college-success curriculum and boarding model, apply to our program through My School DC, visit myschooldc.org starting December 11th! The deadline is February 1, 2024!

For all enrollment-related questions, please contact the Office of Family and Community Engagement at 202.248.3025 or admissions@seedschooldc.org.
