FOR APRIL 5, 2020

UPCOMING EVENTS & REMINDERS

CAMPUS UPDATE:

In cooperation with Mayor Bowser, SEED DC, along with all public school buildings, will be closed. We will operate remotely through Friday, April 24. School buildings are slated to reopen with scholars returning to school on Monday, April 27, 2020.Continue to practice social distancing.

Continue to be safe by exercising social distancing. Don't operate in fear, but use wisdom.

REMOTE LEARNING SUPPORTS - UPDATES

Check the Remote Learning Plan page of our website for the updated Long-term Plan Schedule. There you will find the remote schedule for every teacher and every subject.

Scholars can access Google Classroom via XBOX or PS4. This doesn't give full access without a keyboard attached; but it does give some access if they have a gaming system:

Office of the Attorney General High School Advisory Council

OAG is now accepting applications for its 2020 High School Advisory Council, a paid program where students analyze real world problems, build their decision-making skills, and discuss policy recommendations with the Attorney General. All District high school students —DCPS, public charter and private—are welcome to apply for this competitive program. Learn more about HSAC and apply to be part of the 2020 cohort.

- OAG's High School Advisory Council (HSAC) is an intensive three-week, paid program that brings 15 District students together to make important policy recommendations to the Attorney General and his staff. Under the guidance and supervision of OAG professional staff, students are prompted to analyze real world problems to build their decision-making skills around complex issues. The purpose of the program is to give young people a seat at the table in making decisions about critical issues that directly affect them. HSAC members have opportunities throughout the year to discuss policy recommendations with the Attorney General.
- The 2020 HSAC program begins with a three-week boot camp (July 6 - July 24) where students learn about advocacy, policymaking and the inner workings of the Office of the Attorney General.
- We are looking for 15 D.C. residents who are:
  - Rising 10th, 11th and 12th-grade students who are interested in social justice and exhibit leadership among their peers.
  - Eager to learn about public service, how government functions, and advocacy for their personal policy interests.
  - Reflect the District's diversity and represent its various communities and affinity groups across all eight Wards.
  - Have at least a 2.0-grade point average at the time of their application.
- Early Admission Deadline: March 18, 2020
- Regular Admission Deadline: April 28, 2020

VIRTUAL COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITY

The Office of the Attorney General (OAG) for the District of Columbia (oag.dc.gov) is seeking input from District students on DC laws and policies that affect young people.

Beginning on Tuesday, March 24, OAG is hosting four OAG Twitter chats in March and April on Tuesday's from 12:00-1:00pm. These social media chats will cover topics that are important during the COVID-19 crisis and relevant to youth. Students can earn up to 12 hours of community service between Tuesday, March 24- Friday, April 17, 2020, by participating in the Twitter chats and by writing a 300-500-word essay on each chat topic.

To earn the service hours, students must comment on Twitter at least four times during the Twitter chat (between 12:00-1:00pm ET) using the hashtag for that week's chat and by retweeting (sharing) the OAG content or any of the panelists content twice. Additionally, students will be directed to complete an online form at the completion of each chat and submit to OAG a 300-500-word essay on the questions located on the form. The questions will directly relate to the Twitter chat for that week. One question will ask students to share their ideas about D.C. policies that are relevant to the chat topic.

If students complete the requirements, they can earn three community service hours each week. For questions, please email Christina Jones, OAG's Special Counsel for Strategic Youth Initiatives at Christina.Jones2@oag.dc.gov.
