

THE WEEKLY FALCON

for the week of 12/10/2023

NEWS FROM THE NEST

Gratitude in All Seasons...

To Our Falcon Families,

I hope you have had an enjoyable weekend and see ready for the week ahead. I apologize to those of you who were planning to attend the Quarterly Head of School Dinner last week as we had to postpone both evenings due to my health. I am grateful for your flexibility and understanding, as I will continue to intentionally create opportunities for you to spend time on campus and partner with us in this significant portion of your son's/daughter's developmental journey. We will continue to push forward to make the final two weeks meaningful in the classroom and beyond.

Please ensure that you have access to accurate and up-to-date grades for your scholar as we go into the Winter Break. When we return, we will have the final three weeks of semester one, focusing on all scholars, finishing with grades that are authentically reflective of their levels of mastery and learning. Please consider spending some time speaking with your scholar about how he/she/they will participate in our academic and SEL goal setting as we bring in the new year. All members of the SEED DC community will be expected to actively participate in ongoing data discussions and the monitoring of individual growth and progress as a way of fully guiding and empowering each scholar to maximize their potential. As this mentality takes hold, I envision a day when a scholar is able to turn to a number of staff members, regardless of assignment, to seek assistance, feedback, encouragement and or meaningful advice connected to meeting their goals, building their comprehensive skill set and bringing their dreams to life. We have all the resources necessary to guarantee an amazing and life changing experience for each scholar who is willing to step into a space that insists on discovering one's highest performance through tenacity and resilience.

Please know my expectation is that we must all commit daily to the Core Values that are the foundational pillars of a SEED education. In this chapter, take a moment to discuss with your scholar the importance of gratitude. Not only for the phenomenal moments and events we all experience with enthusiasm and joy. Help them understand it is often in the times we face challenges and trials that we also unearth our greatest strengths and a new sense of purpose. This doesn't necessarily make sense when one is 15 or 16 years old. However, as adults who have lived life, I am confident that each of us knows the power of walking through the fire, standing during the storm, that eventually allows us to know our time in the sun will come one more time. Let's collectively prepare our Falcons not only for all the celebrations that lie ahead, but for the triumphant, hard fought battles that increase one's fortitude and stamina. This is true readiness for the weeks and months ahead; authentic preparation for their lives throughout their undergraduate years and far into the future.

I hope this week is kind to each of you. I am exceedingly grateful to be leading this amazing, life-changing journey for your scholars.

Warmest Regards,
Ms. Hood

SCHOLARS WHO ARE PRESENT EVERY DAY FOR THE MONTHS LISTED WILL RECEIVE AN INCENTIVE. INCENTIVES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE.

QUESTIONS, PLEASE SEE MS. HOLLOWAY

This is a reminder that in efforts to hold our scholars accountable, you will continue to receive an attendance alert for every period your scholar is marked absent. Please use this weekend to speak to your scholar (s) about the importance of showing up to class on time, prepared and ready to learn. Remember that every day counts! Scholars who are present everyday will receive an incentive at the end of each month.

FULL UNIFORM COMPLIANCE EXPECTED

Please continue to check your scholar's luggage to ensure they have enough uniforms for the entire week. Also, remind your scholar that bonnets, ski masks, or any other headgear are to be left in the dormitory and not worn during the academic day.

UNIFORM POLICY

The SEED Uniform Policy

All SEED scholars are expected to be in the full appropriate SEED uniform throughout the academic day. The SEED uniform contributes to ensuring a safe and secure campus in addition to the overall sense of unity as a school community. It enhances the learning atmosphere, adds a sense of pride, and promotes respect for oneself and others. It also builds school and community spirit, and, more significantly, helps to maintain high academic standards and social-emotional development among scholars.

Scholars must check into school with the appropriate number of uniforms for the week and have appropriate clothing for the boarding program. Each week at check-in, student life staff will make every effort to ensure that scholars are properly outfitted for the week, although it is the responsibility of parents and scholars to come to campus fully prepared for the week ahead. In the event your child is not properly outfitted for the week, parents will be called and asked to bring appropriate uniforms and other clothing to campus by 7:00 a.m. the next morning.

Scholars will not be allowed off the residence hall floor without being in proper SEED uniform. If for some reason, scholars make it off the residence hall floor without the appropriate uniform item(s), parents should expect to receive a call regarding their child's uniform violation.

In the event that a scholar does not have the appropriate uniform at school, parents will be expected to bring their child all of the needed uniform pieces.

+ Scholars not in proper school uniform during the academic day will receive a disciplinary response from an administrator.
