ABSENCES FOR CLASS OF 2022

It has come to our attention that some seniors are departing school to go to work and/or arriving late to school due to work obligations. Please continue to partner with us by not granting permission for your student to leave school early for work. As a reminder, the Student & Family Handbook:

"Any senior who has 10 or more absences are at-risk for not earning credit for their course. Per the DC PCSB, scholars cannot be cleared for graduation if they have 20 or more absences without documentation justifying how a scholar is able to graduate with an excessive number of missing days. No credit for a course is equivalent to failing a course, which puts you at-risk for not meeting graduation requirements." Please check your student's PowerSchool account to determine absences for your student. If you have any questions, please contact Ms. Holloway at aholloway@seedschooldc.org or Mrs. Holman-Jones at 202-329-8961.

DCSAA FREE GOLF CLINIC - SATURDAY, 4/2/2022

The District of Columbia State Athletic Association, continuing to expand opportunities for student-athletes, will hold a free golf clinic featuring members of the Howard University men's and women's golf teams on Saturday, April 2 at historic Langston Golf Course in Northeast Washington.

The clinic is open to all middle and high school boys and girls, both those who play golf and those who are new to the sport. Equipment will be available for those who need and golfers will have the opportunity to work on both the driving range and in the short game practice area.

"In addition to holding the first-ever DCSAA State Golf Championship this spring, DCSAA wants to give as many youngsters as possible the opportunity to both try the sport of golf and improve their games," DCSAA Executive Director Kenny Owens said. "What an amazing gesture by the Howard University golf teams to volunteer their time to work with D.C.'s youngsters. Thanks also to our partners at First Tee DC and National Links Trust for their interest in making this event possible."

The 90-minute clinic begins at 2 p.m., with complimentary food and beverage provided afterward.

Participants can register online at <https://bit.ly/DCSAAgolfSignUp>. Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis until capacity is reached.

About the District of Columbia State Athletic Association:

The District of Columbia State Athletic Association has served District of Columbia public schools, public charter schools, and independent private and parochial schools since 2012. Studies regularly show that students who participate in extracurricular activities generally are better prepared to succeed beyond high school and under DCSAA guidance, student-athlete participation has risen 44 percent. DCSAA empowers its members.

Scholar-Athlete Shout-Outs

The SEED DC Athletic Department is proud to announce the following students for outstanding athletic performance:

- Kamarah Glasgow-Scales - PCSAA All-Conference first team
- Devin Ballard - PCSAA All-Conference second team
- Jamilla Bryant - PCSAA All Conference honorable mention
- Dondre Blackwell - PCSAA All-Conference first team
- Carmello Myles - PCSAA All-Conference second team and DCSAA All-State second team
- Jason Carter - PCSAA All-Conference honorable mention

This is the highest recognition of individual athletic accomplishment. For this honor, student-athletes are chosen as the top athletes in their team sport by the opposing coaches. This is initiated by each coach nominating players from their team. A ballot is then sent to all coaches to vote for the best players, but coaches are not allowed to vote for players from their team.

PANDEMIC RENT RELIEF INFO

End of the Pandemic Unemployment Benefits – What Rights Do I Have?

Which benefits are ending?

DC has had three special unemployment programs that expire September 4, 2021:

- Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation, or PEUC, extending the time you could receive regular unemployment ("UI") benefits.
- Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation, or FPUC, giving an extra $300 per week.
- Pandemic Unemployment Assistance, or PUA, giving benefits to people who can't get regular UI.

Are my unemployment benefits going to stop after September 4, 2021?

Maybe.

- If you get regular UI, your payments might continue – Please keep filing claims cards!
- If you get PEUC, your PEUC will stop, but you might start getting regular UI again or you might be eligible for another benefit program - see below!
- If you get PUA, your payments will stop.
- The extra $300 per week will stop.

Are there any other unemployment benefits I can apply for?

If you are in the PEUC or regular UI program and you do not get paid after the week ending Sept. 4, 2021, you may be eligible for the week ending Sept. 11, 2021 through another program called Extended Benefits (EB). If this applies to you or you aren't sure, please apply for EB as soon as your other payments stop at dcnetworks.org or 202-724-7000.

If you think you may be eligible for PUA for weeks ending between December 1, 2020 and September 4, 2021, but haven't applied yet, you can apply until October 6, 2021.

I think DOES owes me money for past weeks. Can they still pay me?

Yes! DOES has to keep processing all timely-filed claims. If you are still waiting on DOES to make a decision on your claim or to pay you for missing weeks, please keep following up with them at 202-724-7000 or uiescalations@dc.gov.

DOES told me they aren't going to pay me – what can I do?

You can request a hearing with the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH).

Get the appeal form at <https://oah.dc.gov/publication/ui-request-hearing-appeal-determination-claims-examiner-involving-unemployment-benefits> or by calling OAH at (202) 442-9094. You can email it to oah.filing@dc.gov or bring it in person to the Office of Administrative Hearings, 441 Fourth Street NW, Suite 450N, Washington, DC 20001.

Are there any non-UI programs I can apply for to help pay my bills?

Yes! DC residents can apply for SNAP (food stamps), TANF, & Alliance/Immigrant Children's Program at <https://dcbenefits.dhs.dc.gov/>, via smart phone through District Access App, or in person at a DHS Service Center. You can apply for Medicaid at dchealthlink.com or by phone at 1-855-532-5465.

You can apply for rental and utility assistance at stay.dc.gov or 833-478-2932.

*If you receive benefits through these programs, please meet all your reporting requirements, including if your unemployment benefits stop.
