

THE SEED PUBLIC CHARTER SCHOOL OF WASHINGTON, D.C.

THE WEEKLY FALCON

for the week of 9/10/2023

New From the Nest...

To Our SEED Families:

As we complete our second week of the 2023/2024 school year, I continue to be inspired by the abundant possibilities that define The SEED School of Washington, D.C.. While we have had several challenges, our scholars continue to persist and press on. We are living in a time of both uncertainty and extensive change, which adds to the complexities of navigating one's journey into adulthood. I want our campus to be a place where our scholars discover and develop a wide range of skills and talents, maximizing their potential by leaning into their time at SEED DC. We are committed to providing an environment that focuses on strong academic readiness and intentionally prepares each of them for success in college and beyond. Simultaneously, we know the importance of their social emotional development and work to build these important competencies into their academic and student life experiences.

As we pause and reflect on the past week and move forward to a new one, I ask that you talk with your scholar about choosing to begin again. This simple phrase carries enormous power as it allows each of us to stop, reset and decide with purpose how we want to show up for ourselves and others. Regardless of our differences, disagreements and varying perspectives, we must find common ground that is rooted in humanity, dignity and mutual respect and insists that we coexist in a way that honors one another. My expectation at SEED DC is that each of us contributes to a strong sense of community, carrying ourselves in a way that seeks resolution over conflict, peace over dissension and justice over compliance.

Each scholar deserves to know what it feels like to belong at SEED, to be safe and secure so they are able to realize their hopes, dreams and goals far beyond this chapter with us. Thank you for trusting us with your sons and daughters. I believe it is a great privilege and significant responsibility to lead their educational journey as your Head of School at The SEED School of Washington, D.C.. Each new day, I will choose to begin again as I work to guide, lead and educate our scholars.

Warmly,
Ms. Hood, Head of School

UNIFORM POLICY UPDATE

Please read to the email from Ms. Hood regarding the updates to the uniform policy and refer to the chart below regarding proper uniform attire.

The SEED School of Washington, D.C. a public charter school

UNIFORM POLICY

The SEED Uniform Policy

All SEED scholars are expected to be in the full appropriate SEED uniform throughout the academic day. The SEED uniform contributes to ensuring a safe and secure campus in addition to the overall sense of unity as a school community. It enhances the learning atmosphere, adds a sense of pride, and promotes respect for oneself and others. It also builds school and community spirit, and, more significantly, helps to maintain high academic standards and social-emotional development among scholars.

Scholars must check into school with the appropriate number of uniforms for the week and have appropriate clothing for the boarding program. Each week at check-in, student life staff will make every effort to ensure that scholars are properly outfitted for the week, although it is the responsibility of parents and scholars to come to campus fully prepared for the week ahead. In the event your child is not properly outfitted for the week, parents will be called and asked to bring appropriate uniforms and other clothing to campus by 7:00 a.m. the next morning.

Scholars will not be allowed off the residence hall floor without being in proper SEED uniform. If for some reason, scholars make it off the residence hall floor without the appropriate uniform item(s), parents should expect to receive a call regarding their child's uniform violation.

In the event that a scholar does not have the appropriate uniform at school, parents will be expected to bring their child all of the needed uniform pieces.

⊕ Scholars not in proper school uniform during the academic day will receive a disciplinary response from an administrator.

WELLNESS SUITE MEDICATION REQUIREMENTS

Please be reminded that that only parents/guardians/caregivers or authorized adults can bring medication to the Wellness Suite. Medication will not be accepted from students and students are not allowed to carry medication on their person, with the exception of an asthma inhaler.

In order for the school to administer prescription medication, a medical authorization form must be filled out by the doctor. Parents must also sign the form before school medical personnel can administer medication. Only creams, antibiotics, or medical equipment will be sent home on Fridays during checkout and that no student will be allowed to take medication home. Be sure to request for your pharmacist to divide the medication in two (2) bottles, one to keep at home and one to be left at school. Also we have over the counter medications here and all parents should fill out the form if their student needs to take any over the counter medications. All of the medical forms mentioned here can be found on the health & wellness suite page of the school website.

Click here to review the full medication policy.

Thank you,
